5 Basis for processing personal information

5.1 In relation to any processing activity we will, before the processing starts for the first time (if it has not already started), and then regularly while it continues:

- 5.1.1 review the purposes of the particular processing activity, and select the most appropriate lawful basis (or bases) for that processing, i.e.:
 - (a) that the data subject has consented to the processing;
 - (b) that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;

 - 5.1.3 document our decision as to which lawful basis applies, to help demonstrate our compliance with the data protection principles;
 - 5.1.4 include information about both the purposes of the processing and the lawful basis for it in our relevant privacy notices;
 - 5.1.5 where sensitive personal information is processed, also identify a condition for processing that information (see paragraph 6.2.2 below), and document it; and
 - 5.1.6 where criminal offence information is processed, also identify a condition for processing that information (see paragraph 7.2.2 below), and document it.
- 5.2 When determining whether the School's legitimate interests are the most appropriate basis for lawful processing, we will:
- 5.2.1 conduct a legitimate interests assessment (LIA) and keep a record of it, to ensure that we can justify our decision;
 - 5.2.2 if the LIA identifies a significant privacy impact, consider whether we also need to conduct a data protection impact assessment (DPIA);
 - 5.2.3 keep the LIA under review, and repeat it if circumstances change; and
 - 5.2.4 include information about our legitimate interests in our relevant privacy notice(s).

11.1 Individuals have the following rights in relation to their personal information:

- 11.1.1 to be informed about how, why and on what basis that information is processed—see the School’s privacy notices;

- 11.1.3 to have data corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- 11.1.4 to have data erased if it is no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was originally collected/processed, or if there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing (this is sometimes known as ‘the right to be forgotten’);
- 11.1.5 to restrict the processing of personal information where the accuracy of the information is contested, or the processing is unlawful (but they do not want the data to be erased), or where the School no longer needs the personal information but the individual requires the data to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim; and
- 11.1.6 to restrict the processing of personal information temporarily where they do not think it is accurate (and the School is verifying whether it is accurate), or where they have objected to the processing (and the School is considering whether the organisation’s legitimate grounds override the individual's interests).

11.2 Individuals wishing to exercise any of the rights in paragraphs 11.1.2 to 11.1.6, should contact the Bursar.

12 Individual obligations

12.1 Individuals are responsible for helping the School keep their personal information up to date. They should let the Human Resources Department know if the information they have provided to the School changes, for example if they move house or change details of the bank or building society account to which they are paid.

- 12.3.5 not store personal information on local drives or on personal devices that are used for work purposes.

12.4 Staff should contact the Bursar if they are concerned or suspect that one of the following has taken place (or is taking place or likely to take place):

 - 13.1.4 a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of technical and organisational measures for ensuring the security of the processing.
- 13.2 Where the School uses external organisations to process personal information on its behalf (so that those organisations are processors as defined in applicable data protection laws), additional security arrangements need to be implemented in contracts with those organisations to safeguard the security of personal information. In particular, contracts with external organisations must provide that:
 - 13.2.1 the organisation may act only on the written instructions of the School;
 - 13.2.2 those processing the data are subject to a duty of confidence;
 - 13.2.3 appropriate measures are taken to ensure the security of processing;
 - 13.2.4 sub-processors are only engaged with the prior consent of the School and under a written contract;
 - 13.2.5 the organisation will assist the School in providing subject access and allowing individuals to exercise their rights in relation to data protection;
 - 13.2.6 the organisation will assist the School in meeting its obligations in relation to the security of processing, the notification of data breaches and data protection impact assessments;
 - 13.2.7 the organisation will delete or return all personal information to the School as requested at the end of the contract; and
 - 13.2.8 the organisation will submit to audits and inspections, provide the School with whatever information it needs to ensure that they are both meeting their data protection obligations, and tell the School immediately if it is asked to do something infringing data protection law.
- 13.3 Before any new agreement involving the processing of personal information by an external organisation is entered into, or an existing agreement is altered, the relevant staff must seek approval of its terms by the Bursar.

14 Storage and retention of personal information

- 14.1 Personal information (and sensitive personal information and criminal records information) will be kept securely in accordance with the School's Data Protection Policy and Data Retention Guidelines.
- 14.2 Personal information (and sensitive personal information and criminal records information) should not be retained for any longer than necessary. The length of time over which data should be retained will depend upon the circumstances, including the reasons why the personal information was obtained. Staff should adhere to the School's specified retention periods, (Data Retention Guidelines) or the criteria that should be used to determine them. Where there is any uncertainty, staff should consult the Bursar or Human Resources Manager.
- 14.3 Personal information (and sensitive personal information and criminal records information) that is no longer required will be deleted permanently from our information systems and any hard copies will be destroyed securely.

15 Data breaches

- 15.1 A data breach may take many different forms, for example:
 - 15.1.1 loss or theft of data or equipment on which personal information is stored;
 - 15.1.2 unauthorised access to or use of personal information either by a member of staff or third party;
 - 15.1.3 loss of data resulting from an equipment or systems (including hardware and software) failure;
 - 15.1.4 human error, such as accidental deletion or alteration of data;
 - 15.1.5 unforeseen circumstances, such as a fire or flood;
 - 15.1.6 deliberate attacks on IT systems, such as hacking, viruses or phishing scams; and
 - 15.1.7 'blagging' offences, where information is obtained by deceiving the organisation which holds it.
- 15.2 The School will:
 - 15.2.1 make the required report of a data breach to the Information Commissioner's Office without undue delay and, where possible within 72 hours of becoming aware of it, if it is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals; and
 - 15.2.2 notify the affected individuals if a data breach is likely to result in a high risk to their rights and freedoms and notification is required by law.

16 International transfers

The School will not transfer personal information outside the European Economic Area (EEA), which comprises the countries in the European Union and Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway.

17 Training

The School will ensure that staff are adequately trained regarding their data protection responsibilities. Individuals whose roles require regular access to personal information, or who are responsible for implementing this policy or responding to subject access requests under this policy, will receive additional training to help them understand their duties and how to comply with them.

18 Consequences of failing to comply

- 18.1 The School takes compliance with this policy very seriously. Failure to comply with the policy:

- 18.1.1 puts at risk the individuals whose personal information is being processed; and
 - 18.1.2 carries the risk of significant civil and criminal sanctions for the individual and the School; and
 - 18.1.3 may, in some circumstances, amount to a criminal offence by the individual.
- 18.2 Because of the importance of this policy, an employee's failure to comply with any requirement of it may lead to disciplinary action under the School's Disciplinary Procedure and this action may result in dismissal for gross misconduct. If a non-employee breaches this policy, they may have their contract terminated with immediate effect.
- 18.3 If you have any questions or concerns about anything in this policy, do not hesitate to contact the Bursar.
